

Greening Grants

Thinking of creating a green space or have one and looking for ways to maintain or enhance your community's green space? Here is a list of organizations and programs to help fund various greening projects in Baltimore City. We're providing you this list so you can get ready and mark your calendars for the ones that have passed so you can be ready next year!

Please note that this is not a complete list, as funding sources are sometimes seasonal, annual, or temporary. Please contact info@baltimoregreenspace.org to share other resources or information that we may include in future publications.

Available Grants in 2023

Abell Foundation

Accepts funding requests of $10,000 or less, on a rolling basis

Accepts funding requests of $10,000 or more, due Jan 1, March 1, May 1, July 15, and Oct 1

- The Abell Foundation awards grants to nonprofit community partners working to improve the quality of life in Baltimore. We provide seed funding for innovative pilots, support for ongoing community programs and services, and funding for capital projects. Consideration is also given to applications for grants that provide creative responses to pressing community needs, strengthen the operational base to ensure more effective and efficient delivery of services and demonstrate potential for stimulating new sources of financial support.
- Who Can Apply: The Foundation provides grant funding to organizations that have 501c3 or 509a nonprofit tax status, or are a government agency or fiscally sponsored project. Programs should fall into one of Abell's program areas and focus on Baltimore City. Applicants must include a copy of their latest IRS determination letter and federal tax identification number (EIN), or proof of fiscal sponsorship.
